ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)

REMARKS

25X1X

1. On 16 May 1951, the MGB troops stationed in the court building in Cottbus (N 52/A 57) wore black-bordered ruby epaulets instead of the green epaulets previously worn by them. (1) 25X1B
2. At the beginning of May, the MGB unit in Georgengarten, Dessau (M 52/E 17), had 60 to 80 men who wore black-bordered red epaulets. They were definitely identified as being the same officers and men who had previously worn green epaulets. (2) 25X1B
3. In mid-May, the Bucher Kaserne in Dresden (N 52/F 29) still quartered 800 to 1,000 MGB troops who wore black-bordered crimson epaulets. There was heavy traffic of officers, men, and vehicles. Motor vehicles seen included van-like truck [redacted] sedan [redacted] occupied by officers; trucks [redacted] [redacted], occupied by soldiers with black-bordered crimson epaulets; and sedans [redacted] driven by soldiers with black-bordered crimson epaulets. (3) 25X1B
4. The residential quarter on Strasse der Einheit in Erfurt (M 51/J 36) was blocked to civilian traffic at the northern corner of Bergstromweg, because MGB officers were billeted there. The other section of the restricted area billeted dependents of officers of the SCC headquarters which was recently transferred from Weimar to Erfurt. 25X1B
5. In mid-May, the Reil Kaserne in Halle quartered 300 to 400 MGB troops with black-bordered red epaulets. The troops were definitely the same as those who had previously worn red-bordered green epaulets. Some of the officers of the unit apparently lived in the residential quarter on Rosa Luxemburg Platz. However, due to the change in service color, it could not be definitely determined to which organization the officers belonged. The MGB office on Luisenstrasse and the MGB unit in the Reil Kaserne were affiliated. Motor vehicles seen in barracks traffic included sedans [redacted] trucks [redacted] [redacted] sedans [redacted] [redacted] and sedan [redacted] used by the commanding officer. (4) 25X1B
